Marketer and salesperson who builds the AI systems behind the work. I connect a business goal — more leads, faster replies, more content — to a working tool: an AI booking assistant, a multi-agent workflow, a website, an ad campaign or a batch of AI-produced visuals. I ship end to end, from brief to live result, and explain technical decisions in plain language to non-technical owners.

SELECTED PROJECTS · 2026

Denta AI — booking assistant for dental clinics

2026

- Built a working AI receptionist with n8n and the Claude API: answers patient questions in Georgian and walks them step by step through booking an appointment.
- Automated test suite (15 of 15 scenarios passing), including the booking flow, name capture and a safe fallback when the AI is unavailable.
- Packaged it as a productized service in three tiers, with a cost-per-client model for pricing.

Multi-agent AI workspace

- 4 orchestrating agents (psychology → marketing → build → analytics) coordinating 15 specialist agents in a closed loop where analytics feeds the next cycle.
- Own Python MCP server exposing runs, steps and artifacts to Claude; local dashboard; no external dependencies.
- Library of 44 custom Claude skills with a router that picks the right skill combination per task; a scheduled agent scouts and security-scans new tools daily.

minodary.com — global B2B site for a drink-flavouring brand

- Built and launched the site on WordPress.com through an MCP connection: design system (13-colour palette, typography, components), distributor lead pages, SEO titles and descriptions.
- Product landing page with motion and a 3D (Three.js) prototype; AI product photography with Higgsfield on an approve-before-video workflow.
- Compliance review before launch: 18+ gating, EU protected spirit-name rules, health-claim and fake-review risks.

AgroBox — bilingual Shopify store

- Bilingual (KA/EN) Shopify store concept and live premium mock-up for a raised-garden-bed brand; positioning based on the real competitor — DIY, not other stores.
